

Chris Elliott

Chris completed her technical training with 2 years Studio Pottery at Kalgoorlie College with Bela Kotai. Chris worked from home studio in Boya. Chris is a Life Member of "The Potter's Corner in Kalgoorlie". Became involved with teaching in schools throughout WA with the visual art foundation and teaching adults and children at CAG

Chris is a Life Member of Canning Art Group and has been Vice President of CAG for several terms. Was head of Ceramics and has been a Member of Management Board at Brisbane Institute of Art QLD.

Whilst teaching in QLD, Chris held 2 solo and 2 shared Exhibitions at Nona Gallery and South Bank Gallery.

Chris spent 6 months potting – teaching workshops as a Member of South Australia Studio Potters in Adelaide. Pottery was exhibited in Eye to Eye, O.G. Studio and Peppers Corner Galleries.

Along the way, Chris has taught pottery to juvenile offenders at Marin County Special School – U.S.A., one year teaching at Selby Street Quadriplegics – WA, juvenile offenders Banksia Prison – WA and special needs – disabled people – CAG as well as 2 years teaching blind people at the Institute for the Blind – WA.

Chris is experienced in Raku, Pit, Gas, Electric and Salt Firing and has many years experience in all aspects of pottery.