

Laurie Cochrane

Laurie Cochrane has been teaching art in Perth for over ten years. She studied as a mature student at Curtin University and graduated with a Bachelor of Fine Art.

Laurie helps you overcome the fear of painting or drawing by teaching in a fun and relaxed environment. Her love for art and the creative process is shared with great enthusiasm.

One of her teaching highlights was working as a workshop educator with Sculpture by the Sea. She continues to hold art workshops with community groups for those who want to tap into their creative spirit.

Laurie has had numerous solo and group exhibitions. Her paintings are represented in many private collections and corporate collections worldwide.

She continues to find inspiration from the landscape and nature and imparts this love to her students.
